- 12. Permits and (safety) inspections
- 12.1. The Principal will arrange for the acquisition of the right permits, permissions and exemptions that are necessary for the execution of the commission by Gigant. If Gigant per exception nevertheless arranges for the application for a permit, permission or exemption, then this takes place entirely for the account and risk of the Principal.
- 12.2. If a construction and/or the use thereof are not permitted by an inspecting entity, then the agreement will remain in force and should all payment obligations deriving from the agreement be satisfied.
- 12.3. The costs for adaptations deriving from decisions of inspecting entities are for the account of the Principal.
- 13. Technical terminology and norms
- 13.1. All objects built by Gigant have been calculated according to the European norms for temporary constructions in force. All deviating agreements shall be stated on the drawing or in the offer. These need to be confirmed in writing by the Principal. The Principal is responsible for the compliance with and inspection of these agreements during the entire rental period. Hereby the safety shall be the priority that shall supersede commercial and/or other reasons. If no solution is possible or no agreement is reached over a solution, then Gigant is authorized to deconstruct the rented and to remove it, without that it is held to any compensation for damages to the Principal.
- 13.2. The stated "floor heights" are standard the height which is measured from the work floor /ground level to the upper side floor. Hereby the point of departure is that the surface in a standard situation is always flat. If there is no instance of a standard situation, then it shall be determined in advance which point is the reference point for the measure of the height. Should this, for whichever reason, not be determined in advance, then the measure of the height shall be determined on the location by the concerned representative of Gigant.
- 13.3. Under "permitted floor load" is being understood: the maximum total load with which the floor may be loaded. Hereby it should be observed that this is a divided load and not a point load. The competent representative of Gigant shall upon establishing exceeding or irresponsible load determine on the location which solution shall be chosen.
- 13.4. Under "clearance" is being understood: the free or in-between height, to be calculated from the top side of the floor to the lower side (lowest point) of the roof grid or construction.
- 13.5. Under "roof capacity" is being understood: the maximum total load which can be "hung" from the roof. The lessee is not allowed to place / or install any loads on podium roofs and other structures without handing over a proper rigging / load plot at least 20 days before the start of the first assembly day.

- Hereby it should be observed that this is a divided load and not a point load. Should it become obvious that, for whichever reason, without prior knowledge and approval in advance of the competent representative of Gigant nevertheless a greater load, or an irresponsible load has been "hung", then the Principal shall be fully responsible and liable for the damages arising in whichever form. This can even mean that after an internal and/or external inspection afterwards the arisen damages will be charged to the Principal. The concerned representative of Gigant shall upon establishing exceeding or irresponsibly "hung" load decide on the location which solution shall be chosen in the interest of safety.
- 13.6. Under "wind load" is being understood which maximum allowed wind load may be exercised on the construction. Constructions are minimally capable to deal with a wind speed of 17 m/s. If here for another value has been taken, then this will be stated on the technical drawings. The Principal is required to keep himself up to date with the weather conditions.
- 13.7. With covered areas, wind speeds (in-service / out-service) apply according to the corresponding instructions for use. Restrictions are supplied with the technical drawings.
- 13.8. Under "snow load" is being understood the load of snow on covered roof structures. Constructions are NOT standard calculated for snow loads. The roof structures should therefore also be kept free of snow, by predetermined possible actions. Think of switching on heaters or having equipment / material available to remove the snow.
- 14. Evacuation of the rented
- 14.1. The Principal shall in consultation with Gigant take the necessary measures to put the constructions "out of service" when wind speeds above 17 m/s are being expected. If these are other wind speeds, then this shall be stated on the work drawings. The Principal shall at all times proceed to evacuation of the constructions, or of the vicinity of constructions, if wind speeds above 28 m/s are being expected and/or if there is an instance of danger of electrocution during a thunderstorm.
- 14.2. If the Principal omits under the aforementioned weather conditions to evacuate the rented directly and with immediate effect of all persons, then the Principal shall safeguard Gigant for all claims that directly or indirectly are caused by the aforementioned weather conditions.
- 15. Insurance obligation
- 15.1. The Principal is obliged to insure the rented materials against storm and fire damage on location.
- 15.2. The Principal is obliged to, during the period between the construction and the deconstruction of the rented materials to conclude adequate (event) insurance and to actually make a claim under this insurance in a prevalent case. This insurance needs to offer an adequate cover in any case for the liability of the Principal, his personnel and the volunteers or helping persons employed by him, for damages to or loss of the materials rented from Gigant and for accidents, injury and/or death of persons.
- 15.3. The Principal is required to deliver a copy of this insurance to Gigant upon first request.
- 15.4. If the Principal omits to conclude such an insurance, Gigant cannot be charged by the Principal for any form of liability, and the Principal safeguards Gigant against all possible claims of third parties and/or Gigant has the right (but not the obligation) to without any liability to compensation of damages or costs to Principal to suspend its activities until the Principal after all to the satisfaction of Gigant has concluded an adequate event insurance and has delivered a copy thereof to Gigant.
- 15.5. Gigant shall insure the volunteers employed by it adequately.
- 16. Liability, safety and compensations for damages
- 16.1. Any liability of Gigant, including but not limited to damage to goods, asset damage, injury damage, enterprise damage, other (indirect) damages, as well as damages as a consequence of liability towards third parties is excluded except in case of wilful intent or gross negligence form the side of Gigant.
- 16.2. If the court should judge that Gigant has no claim under article 16.1 and nevertheless is liable then the obligation to pay damages of Gigant is at all times limited to the amount stated on the invoice, exclusive of turnover tax, of the case or the commission on which the liability applies.
- 16.3. The Principal is obliged to safeguard and hold harmless concerning all claims of third parties to compensation of damages, for which the liability of Gigant in these General Terms and Conditions in the relation to the Principal has been excluded. This obligation to safeguard and hold harmless also applies to claims by insurers of Principal (possibly trying to take recourse or looking for compensation).
- 16.4. The Principal is required to timely conclude a sufficient liability insurance of which he needs to present a copy to Gigant upon first request.
- 16.5. If situations emerge whereby the safety of employees of Gigant is endangered, then Gigant reserves the right to cease its activities and kept them ceased until the situation is safe once more.
- 16.6. The Principal will arrange for the correct earthing of the construction against lightning and so forth.
- 16.7. The Principal shall provide 10 photos per event, to be designated by Gigant. The Principal guarantees that Gigant is entitled to use those photographs and indemnifies Gigant against all claims by third parties based on infringement of any copyright, any other intellectual property right or related right.
- 17. Complaints
- 17.1. Complaints with regard to the executed activities and/or the amount of the Invoice need to be made known to Gigant in writing within 8 days after the execution of the activities or within 30 days after the discovery of the defect, if the Principal demonstrates that he reasonably could not discover the defect any earlier.
- 17.2. A complaint does not suspend the payment obligation of the Principal. If the complaint is not submitted timely, then all rights of the Principal in relation to that complaint will be forfeited.
- 18. Force Majeure
- 18.1. Gigant is freed by law and not held to compliance with any obligation towards the Principal in case of Force Majeure. Under Force Majeure is being understood the situation in which the execution of the agreement in its entirety or in part, whether or not temporarily, is being impeded by circumstances outside the will of Gigant. As a case of Force Majeure will among others (but not limited to) be regarded: illness of employees of Gigant and third parties employed by it for the execution of the performance, unforeseen measures taken by the government, traffic obstructions, accidents with a means of transport of Gigant or of third parties employed by is, unforeseen technical defects, shortcomings in the compliance with agreements by suppliers of Gigant, terrorism and natural disasters, theft of materials that are necessary for the delivery of the performance, weather conditions including but not limited to wind force and a certain incline of the location because of which it becomes unsafe or dangerous to proceed to the construction of the goods to be delivered. In case of Force Majeure the obligations are suspended, without that Gigant can be held liable for the damages caused by it.
- 19. Suspension and dissolution of the agreement
- 19.1. Gigant has for the duration of the situation of Force Majeure both the right to suspend the execution of the agreement as set forth in article 18.1 as to dissolve the agreement with immediate effect without intervention of the courts, in both cases without being liable for compensation of damages or costs, under whichever name and in whatever basis, on the side of the Principal.
- 19.2. If Principal does not, not properly or not timely comply with any obligation from the agreement concluded between parties or related agreements, if there is a proper ground to fear that Principal is not or shall not be able to comply with his contractual obligations, in case of bankruptcy or suspension of payment or a request or application thereto, as well as in case of cessation, liquidation or entire or partial transfer of the enterprise of Principal as well as in the case that there is a seizure in assets of Principal and this seizure is not being relieved within a reasonable short term, then Gigant has the right to either suspend the execution of the agreement or to dissolve the agreement with immediate effect without intervention of the courts, in both cases without being liable for compensation of damages or costs, and notwithstanding the rights further available to Gigant.
